Chapter 1

Introduction

The 5th Economic Census was carried out in Kerala in the year 2005 as a part of All India Census. As directed by the Government of Kerala the Department of Economics And Statistics made an attempt to collect some more information from enterprises outside the scope and coverage included in the 5th Economic Census. A separate schedule was designed and used to collect information along with the census work.

It is a fact that the Economic Census does not cover the entire characteristic feature of an enterprise. It was on this context, an attempt was made in the State of Kerala to study more characteristic features of the existing enterprises. The schedule designed was intended to collect information like ownership, year of starting, character of enterprises like owned or leased in, the details of credit cards, financial structure, loan availed from various institutions/subsidy/grant availed, the pattern of investment, source of raw materials, problems involved in managing enterprises, type of marketing and place of marketing.

The survey was extremely helpful to study the financial structure of enterprises and problems involved in the management of enterprises functioning in the state of Kerala. The report gives a bird's eye view to the financial support extended to the enterprises by the Government agencies and other financial institutions. The problems for procuring raw materials and the scarcity of raw materials are also seen in the report. The scope of study was to highlight the bottlenecks to operate new enterprises in the state of Kerala.

The report is extremely helpful to unearth certain intrinsic problems in the enterprise sector of Kerala and highlight the steps to be taken to remove these hurdles confronted by the entrepreneurs.

Chapter 3

Conclusion

The conduct of 5th Economic Census was carried out in the state in line with all India Census under the guidance and directions stipulated by the Central Statistical Organization. But in the state of Kerala, with a view to study various characteristic features of enterprises, a separate schedule was used to elicit more information from the enterprises along with usual schedules used for conducting Economic Census. The Economic Census data give general details of enterprises like Rural-Urban, Agriculture-Non-agriculture and the Number of employment (Male/Female/Children) etc. But more information was required to study the characteristic features of the enterprises and a separate schedule for collecting more information was used with the 5th Economic Census.

The survey threw light on various features of the enterprises in the state of Kerala. The survey reveals that the share of Government owned enterprises constitute only 2.47% in the state and the study pinpoints the need for starting more enterprises under Government ownership and guidance. Taking into account, the year wise commencement of new enterprises it shows that the percentage increase noticed in every year is promising and during the last decade the growth registered is a true indicator of the Economic growth of the state.

Taking into account the inherited (3.2%) and leased (1.50%) status of the enterprises, we may conclude that lion share of the upcoming units are owned by the entrepreneurs as their own ventures and it shows the entrepreneurial talent of the new generation.

The survey also unearth the role of banking sector in setting up new enterprises and extending helping hand to new entrepreneurs in the day to day activities of the enterprises in the new economic scenario of the state and it is not at all heartening to see that the role of banking sector is insignificant in contributing the enterprise sector in the state. This is evident from the fact that only 1.7% of the enterprises have different type of credit cards, 66.16% of the enterprises were constituted with own fund and 92% of enterprises have not availed loan from any financial institutions.

It is also a fact that the Government is spending huge amounts as subsidies for setting up new industries either lending the amount directly or by releasing the amount in connection with the implementation of self-employment schemes in the state. But the study reveals that 99% of the existing enterprises have not received any grant or subsidy from the government and it underline the need for revising the policies in sanctioning grant to enterprises at grass root level. It is also a fact that the Government has constituted agencies to provide machineries to upcoming industries to save the entrepreneurs from the exploitation of intermediaries. But the arrangements have not yielded any result since the study reveals that only 0.45% of the total enterprises received machineries from various agencies.

The study also aimed to examine the percentage of rented enterprises in the state and it is found that only 20.86% of the units in the state are rented and the remaining units are owned by the entrepreneurs. The study also made an attempt to bring out the investment structure of the enterprises. Since land is very scarce in the state the study reveals that 49.62% of the investment was made in acquiring land for setting up enterprises in the state. It also shows that the main bottleneck for new investment in the state is high cost of land and non availability of government land in setting up units in the state.

The survey also made an attempt to throw light on raw material consumption of units in the state and result shows that 79.96% of the enterprises purchase their raw materials from local market. The problems for purchasing raw materials to a great extent is solved since the majority of units depend on the availability of raw materials procured locally. It is a fact that the uninterrupted supply of raw materials is a prerequisite for the smooth functioning of enterprises and many units are closed or partially closed due to the non availability of raw materials. Moreover the local availability of raw materials brings the transportation cost to its minimum and the cost of production ultimately.

An important objective of this special survey was to unearth the problems confronted by the entrepreneurs in the functioning of enterprises in the state. We know that an entrepreneur has to surmount so many hurdles in the state to run his units from the very inception of acquiring license. In reply to our questionnaire we received a reply that only 35.93% of the existing units are not facing any problem in operating their enterprises where as the majority are confronting some problems in running their enterprises. The detail of problems confronted is given in the table included in this report.

The Department of Economics and Statistics made an earnest attempt to throw light on various characteristic features of the enterprise sector in the state through this additional survey. Since this attempt is just a beginning, we are aware of all limitations in the outcome. The analysis of result, of course will help us to design and conduct survey, plugging all loopholes we noticed in future.
